How JIF calculated and scored the results

Variance amount = outturn minus baseline. Variance percentage = variance amount divided by the absolute baseline. JIF then applies each KPI's better-when direction and its governed threshold band. Most tracked KPIs, including Non-Tax Revenue, use On Track at -3% or better and Watch through -8%. Capital Expenditure uses its separately approved -10% and -20% band.

Non-Tax Revenue control	Workflow and governed rule aligned at -3% / -8% before June staging. June result: 51.8% below baseline - Under Pressure.
Capital Expenditure rule	Approved standing band: On Track at -10% or better, Watch through -20%, Under Pressure below -20%. June result: 22.0% below baseline - Under Pressure.

Caveats and limitations

#	Caveat
1	This assessment covers eight selected central-government KPIs, not every ministry, programme or public service.
2	The official tables show fiscal outcomes and planned comparisons; by themselves they do not establish why a variance occurred.
3	June figures are year-to-date through June 2026 and may be revised by the Ministry.
4	JIF recalculated the displayed percentages from YTD outturn and YTD baseline values. For lower-better KPIs, an outturn below baseline can be favorable.
5	The Fiscal Balance comparison crosses from a planned surplus to an actual deficit. The 192.1% figure is the signed difference divided by the absolute positive baseline; the two J$ values should be read alongside the percentage.
6	A Watch or Under Pressure classification is a monitoring signal under JIF rules. It is not by itself a finding of corruption, illegality or waste.
